To rible Casualty. New York, 12.—The Herald's Paris has the following on a gas explosion: Early this morning the escape of gas had been noticed and a slight explosion even.

The alarmed people in the cafe, fearing a calamity, instantly sent the proprietor to the nearest office to have the matter attended to. Hardly had he started when a terrific explosion occurred in his own callars. The whole front of the building cellars. The whole front of the building was blown to stoms. Over twelve per-sons are believed to have been killed and nearly fifty wounded. Among them is the commissaire de police, a captain of firemen, seventeen firemen of the rank iremen, seventeen firemen of the rank ard file, and several sergeants.

The flames spread with the rapidity of lightning. Immense crowds congregated at all the approaches to the municipal palace, excitedly asking for news of missing friends and relatives. At 2 o'clock, when 1 visited the spot, the crowd was as great as ever. The whole quarter, which a few hours before was gayly getting ready flags and lanterns for the national fete, was a scene of mourning and desolution.
